Gas Station Wrecking Yard Complies With Ordinance

The Carmel Planning Commission met yesterday afternoon at the City Hall to hold public hearings on an application of Harry Geim of the Mobil Service Station on San Carlos and 7th for a use permit to establish a parking lot within the C-1-C zoning district.

The purpose of this application was to expand a legal non-conforming use and to allow the proper development of a parking lot and temporary auto storage facility for the exclusive use of this service station.

Geim stated that "we need the space . . . and we will build a fence and landscape it to suit everyone." He went on to say that the new space

The Carmel Pine Cone this week begins a monthly guide to good buying for those not familiar with all the delightful shops and courts scattered about our quaint little village. With the aid of "Carmel's 17-Minute Walk," the shopper may follow a time-saving, interesting route through our world-famous business section.

McPhee Takes Post At Utah State University

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Community Theatre of Monterey Peninsula Board of Governors, held on Sunday afternoon in their Sunset Center headquarters, president Wilfred Scholefield announced the resignation of Director-Manager Norman C. McPhee, effective April 1.

In making the announcement Mr. Scholefield said: "I express the regret of the entire board at Mr. McPhee's decision. During the three years he has been producing plays at the Circle Theatre in Carmel he has never wavered in his high and knowledgeable standards of fine theatre. He has not only been responsible for selections of plays, casts, artistic direction, sets and costuming, —additional arduous duties have included the office management of our non-profit organization that depends upon the public for support."

"With his final production, Edward Albee's Pulitzer Prize winner "A Delicate Balance," scheduled to open March 29, Norman's presentations at the Circle will number 20 highly varied plays. Early in '66 he initiated touring theatre, taking entire productions to all parts of the state and winning return engagements. As a speaker on theatre arts Norman has made countless platform appearances before educational and civic groups.

A versatile and able actor as well as a director, Norman McPhee was awarded his B.A. and M.F.A. degrees at Utah State University and we are not surprised that his alma mater has invited him to return in April, as Producer and Program Director of KUSU-TV, the University's educational station.

Applications for the post of director-producer of the Community Theatre of Monterey Peninsula (Circle Theatre in Carmel) may be sent to Wilfred Scholefield, P.O. Box A L, Carmel, California 93921. All applicants will receive consideration.

Robert Hutchins Delivers Brilliant Address

"There is no such thing as instant education," said tall, handsome, white-haired Robert Hutchins in his lecture at Monterey Peninsula College recently. "While no human being is, ineducable," he said, "education is not the solution" of all our ills "Because it comes after the other forces in the environment."

"Slums must be eliminated and the university should be a center of independent thought where basic issues are identified."

Instead of adjusting to the environment, humans should change the environment. Otherwise they are adjusting to "the day before yesterday."

"The scientific and technological revolution has made it impossible to train people for marketable skills because we don't know what skills will be marketable by the time they are taught," he said.

"The 35-hour week is more than an economic problem; it leads to the ultimate revolution in our habits, institutions, our culture. We need wisdom to try to think what the aim of education should be, to devote ourselves to becoming human beings capable of abolishing death, poverty and work."

He pointed out some problems based on results of education: the population explosion following the control of disease, the global revolution following the policy of self-determination.

To develop a system of new ideas could be the aim of education. "No existing theory of politics could explain contemporary life," he said. He wondered whether democracy is possible, but said that democracy which gives every man participation is the only just form of government and should be an ideal.

"The guaranteed income and the negative income tax is inevitable," he said. Since the population explosion, the actual number of illiterates has increased. It is necessary to get on top of the population explosion by means of family planning and developing foods not now available.

As for racial equilibrium, the problem will not be solved by "screaming law and order, oppressive police, tear gas or force. The accumulated misery of years must be alleviated. The metropolitan integrated school is a means of perpetuating poverty and prejudice."

The answer is "rapid, serious, humble attempt to do justice to minority groups."

A member of the audience inquired whether he thought the executive and the judicial branches of government were taking hold. He answered that he thought they undoubtedly were, but only

Theatre Review

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER, Spencer Tracy in his final work and last teaming with Katherine Hepburn, Poitier's performance capped a remarkable year for him.

OPERATION KID BROTHER, the kid brother in this case is Neil Connery who shares the same set of parents with Sean. One couldn't say the film's producers are trying to cash in on that fact except that they keep referring to Dr. Neil's brother, who is a secret agent.

BESERK, some arresting touches given this otherwise artificial, occasionally gory Who Done It, laid in English cities. Joan Crawford, Ty Hardin.

BONNIE AND CLYDE, dazzling slapstick style treatment of saga about robbing group in the Southwest of the 30's, leaves one entertained but not much wiser about them. Gore and sensuality intrude. But the cast is fine.

FITZWILLY, a rollicking comedy about wealthy woman turned poor who is kept in her accustomed style by devoted domestics who turn to thievery for the needed cash.

HAPPIEST MILLIONAIRE, lavish Disney musical starring Fred MacMurray and Greer Garson, Wommy Steele in tale about Anthony J. Drexel Biddle of Philadelphia. A bit sweet, colorful just the same.

SMASHING TIME, Lynn Redgrave and Rita Tushingham come to swinging London in slapstick tale recalling silent film comedy. Wildly antic treatment is effective but unrelieved.

THOROUGHLY MODERN MILLIE, Carol Channing

steals the show playing an eccentric wealthy widow, but also around to help in this comedy of the 1920's are Julie Andrews, who is delightful; James Fox, Bea Lillie and John Garvin. Some of the songs are from the period.

PENTHOUSE, action takes place in a Penthouse where two not-married spend the night. They are invaded by two young men, bright, strange and probably homosexuals, who arrange a particularly unpleasant day for the illicit lovers.

THE SPIRIT IS WILLING, among the vacation visitors to a New England town are a New Yorker, his wife and their long suffering adolescent son. The family has rented a big old house, sight unseen, unaware that it is haunted by ghosts from an unhappy event that occurred over a century before.

THE GRADUATE, interesting, if not completely compelling, comedy. Dustin Hoffman is excellent in the title role. Anne Bancroft is extremely good as the woman who seduces him and Katharine Ross is attractive as her daughter with whom Hoffman falls in love. The picture argues that all over 30 are dishonest, corrupt and unthinking.

THE JOKERS, a laugh-provoking, farce-crime story is combined with offbeat London locales in the new Universal comedy release. Played to evoke guffaws, and is cast with a group of delightful young people, the fun begins when Crawford and his older brother discover an old English law that says no theft can be prosecuted if it is proved that the one who removes another's property did not intend to keep it, and on this premise set out to steal the crown jewels of England.

Carmel Travelers

Iran, India and Istanbul

By Elizabeth Frey

We persuaded Mrs. Austin R. Frey of Pebble Beach to tell us about the trip to the Far East which she and Dr. Frey took recently. In Istanbul they had a reunion with their son, Don, who teaches at Roberts College there, and his wife, Babs. Another son Ted Frey, who is with Esso Chemical Company in Brussels, and his wife Bobbie, joined them there also.

We didn't see much of Istanbul; it was too nice sitting on Don's deck watching the constant stream of traffic on the Bosphorus, especially at twilight. But high spots were the Blue Mosque, the crown jewels (one emerald larger than a baseball) and the bazaar with craftsmen at work in tiny shops.

Iran (Persia) is more colorful, with mosaics everywhere. The domes and great entries of the mosques are in brilliant blue, aqua and yellow. The shah is modernizing his country. More men own their land, and everywhere there are piles of dirt and new buildings going up. But on the outskirts of Yeheran there is the famous spring where rugs, small and large, are brought for washing and then dried on the rocky hillside.

Colorfully dressed itinerant tribes still wander the street of Shiraz, and at Persepolis we saw vast ruins from the time of Darius. Isfahan has most of the brilliant-hued mosques and a bazaar so complex, one could lose one's self. There we stayed at the fabulous Shah Abbas Hotel, almost a city square of splendor. It surrounds a courtyard that is a fairyland at night, with its garden lighted by Japanese lanterns. Inside the columns of mirror mosaics, the Persian rugs, and the pierced brass hanging lamps of the dining room are right out of Arabian Nights.

The color continued in India — golden sunsets, the rainbow shades of the saris against green lawns, and vari-colored sandstone buildings. Cows wander everywhere, streets are dirty, villages poverty stricken. Gracious friends of the Richard Carrs invited us to their homes. We saw fantastic temples and monasteries cut from hills of solid rock centuries ago. Most unforgettable was the Taj Mahal, built of white marble and seeming to float on air like a fairy palace.

They ended their three-month trip with a five-day theatre binge in London, and three relaxing weeks on a ship which took them back to California via the Panama Canal. Before returning to Carmel, they stopped at Coronado to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Cmdr. and Mrs. John K. Thomas and five small children. Cmdr. Thomas recently returned from Vietnam.

Musical Comments:

Last Part the Best

Audience drop-outs during the intermission of the Austin Reller violin recital presented by the Carmel Music Society at Sunset Friday evening missed the most exciting portion, it was the consensus.

It was not that the 28-year-old violinist played badly. Far from it, but the Beethoven Sonata for Violin and Piano which opened the program seemed a bit unsure and somehow lacked sparkle, although the presto finale was lively enough. The Bach Unaccompanied Sonata No. 1 in G minor, usually well-liked by Carmel audiences, was given a rather dry interpretation, for all its technical brilliance.

Following the intermission, the audience was given no relief from the difficult bowings of the Bach. It then had to struggle with the odd atonal intervals and dissonances of the Krenek Sonata for Violin. One could only think how difficult or how interesting the tensions created were, not how beautiful the music was.

Not until the Stravinsky Elegy for Unaccompanied Violin was there any emotional warmth shown. Although this piece was interesting to compare with the Bach, its appeal lay more in tone and mood.

The romantic Wieniawski Polonaise in D Major ended the planned program in a burst of glory. Here apparently was the sort of music the audience had been waiting for. Nathan Schwartz, Reller's accompanist, gave animated support.

As though he were starting all over again to give a concert, Reller gave a warm, rich interpretation of the Tartini Variations on a Theme by Corelli as transcribed by Kreisler.

He continued with Ernest Bloch's Nigun with its impassioned outpourings, and for his third encore delighted the audience with Tijuca, a Brazilian dance by Milhaud.

On the whole, a curious program. M.H.

The Carmel Pine Cone-Cymbal 3

Letter to the Editor

Editor Carmel Pine Cone
Dear Sir:

The Carmel Pine Cone story on page one in the issue of February 1 on the holdup under the new street lights on San Carlos in front of Sunset School, would be very helpful to anyone not relying, as I was in the early evening, on street lights.

To think that Carmel-by-the-Sea, like the rest of the Country, has come to this sad state of affairs is one more reason to deplore freeways and their bulldozers, and big city crowds. Along with the pine forest, the squirrels, the humming birds and the rest of our suffering fauna and exquisite flora, the foolish humans who valued phony "progress" and fake "prosperity" more than anything, instead of heeding the solemn and timely admonitions of PERRY NEWBERRY, who was aware, foresighted, and above all, dedicated only to every consideration—even to a wall and toll gate—which would conserve and perpetuate the majesty and meaning of Carmel-by-the-Sea, these foolish humans are now paying the costly price for that apathy and heedlessness, or worse, their worship of money in what was a temple in Paradise.

It is indeed ironic that those of us who did heed his words and example, notably myself, should be the first victims.

At "the psychological moment" 15 years ago and at great cost to myself, during every big and little "crisis" in Carmel, when there wasn't room enough for standing in the Council Chamber, I tried to found THE PERRY NEWBERRY SOCIETY and, possibly, his wishfully thought wall and gates.

The Nemesis of Carmel-by-the-Sea, and indeed, of the rest of California, is the 1939 Freeway Law, which is un-constitutional to say the least, conferring control of the gasoline tax money upon the Highway Commission which then became a powerful dictator.

Like Perry Newberry, THE PERRY NEWBERRY SOCIETY was dedicated, first of all, to its repeal for the sake of the preservation of the clean air, the superlative beauty of Carmel-by-the-Sea, its unique dwellings, its full significance in the American Scene, and the health and well-being of its people.

Sincerely,
Josephine Reeves Root

Local Girls Sing In Florida

Four girls, Sandy Albright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Albright of Pebble Beach, Tania Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Williams of Carmel Valley, Paula Wilhelm, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Wilhelm, Carmel, and Arienne Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brad Bowman of Carmel Valley, are singing in the national cast of "Up With People," the Pine Cone has been informed.

Mrs. Walter Tittle wrote from Jacksonville, Florida, where the cast was given a standing ovation, that the girls are in fine spirits and are taking real leadership responsibility in the cast that numbers about 250. They will go on to Palm Beach, Sarasota, Naples and Miami and later to South America.

Mrs. Tittle joined the cast after visiting Springfield, Ohio where an exhibit was held of her late husband's portraits in pencil and pastel, one of which was of Oliver Wendell Holmes.

As participant in The Experiment in International Living program, she will live with a family in the French-speaking part of Switzerland for a month, then travel with them for the second month.

Constance prepared for her trip last summer by studying French at the Institute of Foreign Studies in Monterey. Later she spent three weeks at the Experiment's headquarters in Putney, Vermont where the group was given orientation and French conversation practice.

James Lee Dodd

Physics Degree

James Lee Dodd, graduate of Carmel High School in 1960, has just received his B.A. degree in physics from Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee. Jim was a Dean's List student and during his senior year served as Assistant Radiation Safety Officer at Vanderbilt Hospital. He attended Vanderbilt on a Naval Scholarship under the NESEP program.

He is attending OCS in Newport, Rhode Island and will report for duty aboard the USS Halsey in San Diego.

Jim's wife Linda, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. T. Boright of Schuylerville, New York. They have two children, Jimmy and Wendy Lynn. Jim's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Cole of Rio Road in Carmel.

Treasure and Toy Boxes

Chris Williams and his wife, Charlotte, who returned from Africa recently have an interesting project going under their garage apartment at the Henry Meade Williams'. The apartment, incidentally, seems enormous after spending so many months in a camper truck.

Chris is building handsome wooden chests suitable for treasure, linens, anything. Some are decorated in restrained manner to fit in with period furniture. Others Charlotte paints in fanciful peasant designs for guest bedrooms or children's toy boxes. They have them at Brinton's Hardware and at Wells Book Shop where Mona Williams' recently published book, Voices in the Dark, is doing so well.

Wendy Buehr, of New York City, a niece of the Henry Meade Williams, has been visiting them. Wendy is an editor of Horizon Magazine.

Convalescencing

Mrs. August (Genevieve) Armanasco is convalescing from a second bout with major surgery in the space of a few months.

Scholarship Competition Semi-Finalists

John F. Morrice, a sophomore music major from Carmel, is one of seven Monterey Peninsula College students named semi-finalists in the California State Scholarship competition. John was a 1966 graduate of Carmel High School. While there he studied with John Gosling, John Farr and William Purdy and attended the 1964 Lyceum summer program at Asilomar.

He is now studying with Michael Rosenker, concertmaster of the Monterey County Symphony of which John is a member. Previous to coming to Carmel, he studied with Adrian Holland of Los Angeles, having started his instrument at the age of five.

Mary J. Weatherford of Carmel was another of the semi-finalists. Mary is majoring in English and plans to transfer to San Jose State where she will work for a teaching credential. Also a graduate of the 1966 class at Carmel High School, she went through Woods, Sunset and Middle Schools as well.

Donna J. Hutton, a sophomore Spanish major from Carmel, is still another.

57th Anniversary

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Abernathy helped celebrate their 57th wedding anniversary not long ago by bringing champagne, a cake and hors d'oeuvres.

Longtime residents and community leaders, Mr. Abernathy retired in 1955 as manager of the Carmel branch of American Trust Company. He plays golf frequently at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

Several birthdays, that of Mr. Abernathy, Dr. Harry Lancaster and Dr. Harry J. Powers, will be celebrated by this group of old friends at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Powers on March 9th.

You don't have time to take the Reading Dynamics course?

Until you do, you won't have time for much else!

During 1967, 10,132 Northern Californians who didn't have time took the Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics course.

These were the really busy people. Men and women whose professions were so demanding—whose responsibilities were so overwhelming—that they simply had to do something to create more hours in the day.

Many were college students who had found that their academic pursuits left no time for anything else. They were chained to the study table, with no relief in sight.

Fortunately, there is an answer for students, engineers, attorneys, medical doctors, teachers, and people from all walks of life who have to read more with improved comprehension and recall.

How is Reading Dynamics different from other courses?

Conventional rapid reading courses aspire to 450 to 600 words per minute. Most Reading Dynamics graduates can read between 1,500 and 3,000 words per minute, and many go even higher.

Equal or better comprehension

With the Reading Dynamics method, you read every word. You do not skim. You learn a skill that permits you to read faster with equal or better understanding than the average reader. Our average graduate reads 4.7 times faster without sacrificing comprehension.

TIME magazine says

TIME MAGAZINE, in referring to Reading Dynamics' impact on our nation's legislators, said, "Washington has seen nothing like it since the days when Teddy Roosevelt read three books a day and ran the country at the same time."

Senate Leaders praise method

SENATOR TALMADGE, Georgia "...the greatest single step which we could take in educational progress."

SENATOR PROXMIRE, Wisconsin "...one of the most useful educational experiences I ever had."

Rapid Reading in White House

The late President Kennedy invited Mrs. Evelyn Wood to the White House to teach Reading Dynamics to key members of his staff. To date, over 300,000 people have enrolled in the course. They include Senators, businessmen, engineers, housewives, high school and college students, and busy people from every walk of life... people who like to read but until they learned to read right didn't have the time.

PERFORMANCE WARRANTY

The Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institute pledges to increase a student's reading efficiency by at least three times. The Institute will refund a pupil's entire tuition if, after completing minimum class and study requirements, he fails to triple his reading efficiency as measured by our beginning and ending tests. Reading efficiency combines rate and comprehension—not speed alone.

Safeway Dependable Meats

At Safeway Discount, every steak, every chop, every roast of beef and lamb is of U.S.D.A. Choice Grade! This grade is awarded by the Department of Agriculture experts only to meats that will deliver tender, juicy, flavorful cuts. You'll find only the top grades, too, of pork and veal at your Safeway Discount Store.

When you compare prices be sure to compare the trim. The prices at Safeway Discount are for trimmed cuts of meat. Excess fat and bone are cut off before the meat is weighed. Each cut of meat is just right for its own cooking method. All the meat on a Safeway steak is steak meat. The less tender end portion is removed. Similarly, a Safeway roast is all roast meat.

Shop Any Day Of The Week And Save On Safeway's Wonderful Meats! And, if ever a purchase of Safeway meat fails to please you for any reason whatsoever, just tell us. We will refund your money promptly and courteously. There is no need to return the meat.

You take no chances when you shop at Safeway Discount—Everything is top quality.

The Church in the Round and the Unitarian Church of the Monterey Peninsula announced their merger last week. The name of the merged church is Unitarian Church of the Monterey Peninsula (Church in the Round).

There will no longer be a Carmel address. The new church will use 15 Prescott Street, Monterey as their correct address.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SUNDAY SERMON

"Mind" is the subject of the Bible lesson to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Golden Text for the lesson is taken from Romans: "Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ."

The Christian's Best Friend

A religion that brings man into his natural state of spiritual freedom and harmony, enabling him to do the most good with his life, could well be called the Christian's best friend. Christian Science is such a religion. Its teachings, based upon the infinite goodness of God, equip men and women to practice spiritual healing — the most joyful of all Christian privileges.

You are invited to hear how others have solved difficult human problems through spiritual healing. Come to this public lecture by GEITH A. PLIMMER, C.S., of London, England, an experienced practitioner of Christian Science healing.

Admission is free, everyone is welcome.

One Man Shows include exhibition participation in the De Young Museum, Oakland Art Museum, Egyptian Oriental Museum, and many others.

Awards: First in Oil, Mother Lode Annual (Sonora); First in Watercolor, Alameda County Fair, as well as others.

The artist captures the fury of the surf with brush and palette knife with his love of natural beauty and the challenge of the everchanging ocean. His canvases come alive with the spirit and vitality of the sea.

His new studio shows only his own works which are inspired by the sea from the coast of Monterey to Big Sur.

Hans Skaalegaard's vast nautical experience in sail and steam has given him knowledge seldom attained by painters of the sea and ships. Intensive art training, and a love of sailing ships have fired his imagination enabling him to create paintings of great authenticity and mood.

Mr. Skaalegaard has given many lectures, television appearances and exhibits such as his one-man show at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor in San Francisco, all of which have won him acclaim from the public and press.

Superb sculpture by internationally acclaimed sculptor Nick M. Guastella. Group exhibit includes, Ruth Harvey, Jeanne Bellmer, Vivian Stuart, Gael Baldock; internationally acclaimed artists, Victoria Lashkareff and Richard Pearsall.

Beeches' Art Collection

Tucked away behind a large oak tree in one of Carmel's charming courts on San Carlos near Seventh, Beeches' Gallery can be found. Artists of national and international reputation are represented there, as well as many of our finest local painters.

You will see Parisian scenes in a golden mood by Charles Thomas, as well as his florals done in the lost wax process. There are the always-delightful ballet dancers of Royden Martin, done on the gold leaf background which is his trademark. His sensitive nudes done in good taste are there to be admired.

Elwood Graham is well-represented in colorful abstractions; his distinctive brush work is shown to advantage in boat and harbor scenes. The warmth and timelessness of California hills and trees captured in oil by William Timmins bring a real sense of joy to the beholder. Handsome flower paintings, the forte of Nell Walker Warner, are among the choice selection at Beeches'.

Originally this gallery was devoted entirely to small pictures, therefore the selection is extensive for those charming groupings so popular and decorative. However, the art collector may now select works of art in any size from one of our community's better collections.

Both the color and black and white photographs in the current exhibit at Friends of Photography at Sunset Center show psychedelic influences. This is not surprising since the work is that of students of the Institute of Design at the Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago, and the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Prints were selected by Wynn Bullock who has also experimented in abstract color, using colored glass on light.

The opening was well-attended by young people. The show will last until March 15.

The following major works will be featured on the Masters Concert at 8 p.m. during the week of February 22 over KMBY-FM (96.9 m.c.):

Berkeley Chamber Singers Sunday

The Monterey Peninsula Chamber Music Society will present the Berkeley Chamber Singers on Sunday afternoon, February 25, at 4 p.m. in the delightful Canterbury Woods Auditorium in Pacific Grove.

This magnificently balanced group, directed by Alden Gilchrist, has traditionally sought out seldom-heard and unusual music, with particular attention to music of the Renaissance and contemporary periods.

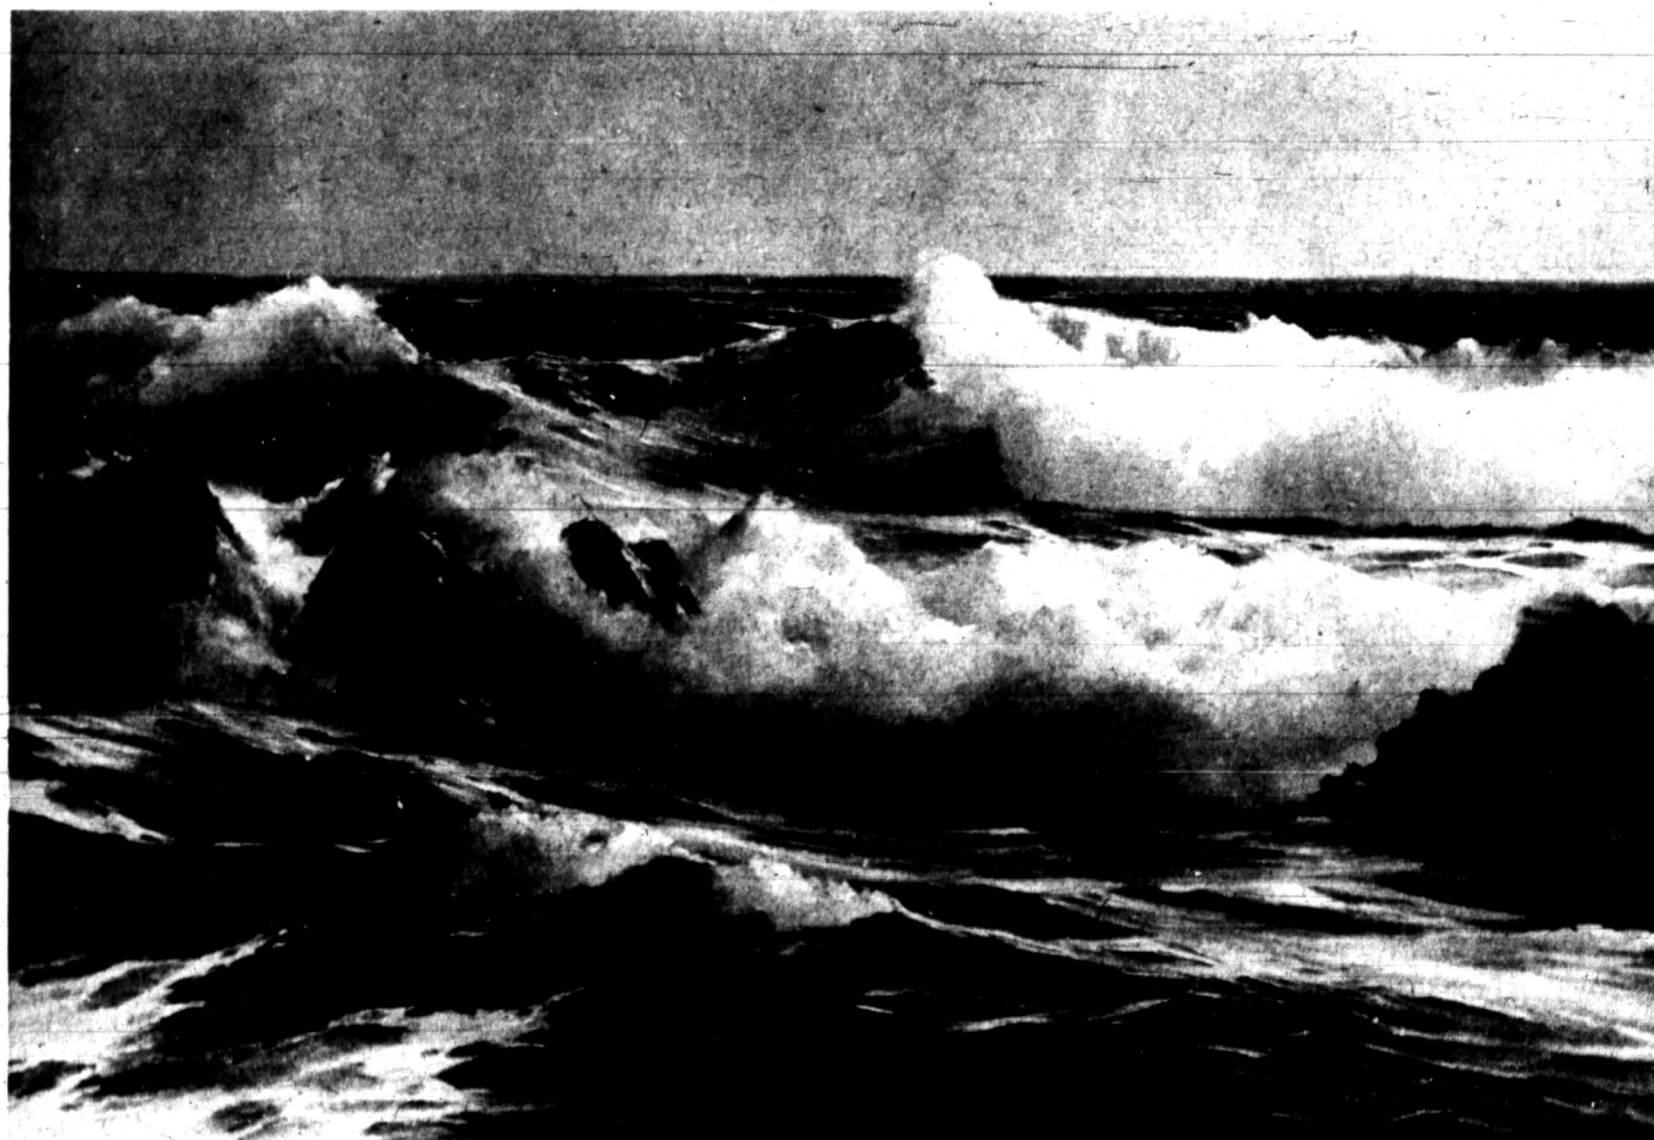

Alfred Frankenstein, music critic, had this to say: "The Berkeley Chamber Singers have some of the most important music in the literature at their command and they do it beautifully... The plasticity, ease and clarity of their performance were quite remarkable as their projection of the pure, relaxed, unearthly sonority which this music requires."

Canterbury Woods is located at 615 Sinex Avenue in Pacific Grove.

CARMEL - BY - THE - SEA

CARMEL is a breath of fresh air, an awareness of beauty. The materialist says of Carmel, "corny," nothin' to do. The idealist glimpses something of reality and a meaning of life in this area of great beauty.

Located, as Carmel is, almost on the west edge of the west coast, it benefits from clean Pacific air, filtered and conditioned by thousands of miles of ocean. It is snuggled into an intimate bay where it receives protection from northerly winds and is guarded by nearby Point Lobos and the Santa Lucia Mountains.

Some Carmel Business Association facts are included in the following:

BRIEF HISTORY

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA is a residential community and art center located on the Pacific shore of Monterey County, California, 130 miles south of San Francisco and 350 miles north of Los Angeles.

Carmel is an informal, individualist town with a citizenry that constantly strives to preserve the natural beauty of ocean, hills and woods. Homes nestle around and under trees on the slopes that rise from the world-famous white sands of Carmel Beach. Local ordinances tightly restrict business zones (i.e., none on the Beach front), outlaw billboard and neon advertising, and control indiscriminate tree cutting.

Carmel has no cemetery, no mail delivery, no street addresses (mail is picked up at the local post office), and except for the business district, conventional sidewalks and street lights are missing.

The village is culturally active in music, art and little theatre groups, and features locally-made art objects in many gift shops.

CARMEL was named for the Carmelite Friars who came to the area with Viscaino in 1602. Carmel's first building, the Mission San Carlos de Borromeo (second of the great Franciscan Missions in California) was established by Father Junipero Serra in 1770.

In the early 1900's, the village of Carmel began around a group of young artists and writers. Five hundred residents living in an area of 7/8 of one square mile incorporated Carmel-by-the-Sea in 1916 and established a Mayor and City Council government.

The Wonderful World of the Pine Inn

How can the PINE INN gain the right to be known throughout the world without the continuous warmth and hospitality that wraps itself around each guest as he enters.

The PINE INN holds a personality and attraction for its owner, who returns it by close attention to the wants of each guest and, to the PINE INN itself, constant additions and refurbishing to bring it to its present state of graciousness. Encompassed within its present structure is the original INN, perhaps imbuing the present with the aura of the past.

The PINE is truly an INN.

From all over the world, as the records show, came guests — from Counts and Barons to the itinerant traveler.

We don't know how many we had in 1915, but during 1967 the PINE INN entertained in excess of 377,000 guests in its various capacities: its individually designed bedrooms in the Victorian mood, the Crystal Room and Victorian Room as private dining supplements to the Main Dining Room, all famous for their delectable cuisine, and the Red Parlor to toast good health and happiness.

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

California Capers Now and Then

Last weekend was the gay House Party for the Press with "Mack" Mackenzie, "Doc" Reid, "Eddie" Loomis and "Al" Railton as genial hosts. The theme was "Canary Row Revisited" and the setting at the Mark Thomas Inn for the "Big Bash" was super! We have so much to tell this time, we're going to give their dinner menu right off and let it speak for itself.

Mack's Surprise Birthday Party for Doc

Varied Hors D'Oeuvres de Luxe
Drinks of One's Choice
Lee Chong's Clam Chowder
Paisano Salad
Mack's Favorite Steak with Mushrooms
Frijoles
Artichokes & Tomatoes
Doc's Birthday Cake
Monterey Jack Cheese
Coffee, Wines, Brandy, Cigars

As this coming Saturday is the traditional "Baile de los Cascarones," the pre-Lenten ball sponsored by the Monterey Civic Club at San Carlos Hotel, we thought those attending might like to serve some of the dishes the Mark Thomas Inn repeated last weekend. Both parties are of California origin—the modern and the unforgotten past. At the Baile, guests will wear early Californian and Spanish costumes which must be authentic. According to tradition, a "gold" egg will be given as door prize. But dinner is not being served at the rendezvous this year, therefore the following recipes from the Mark Thomas Inn's updated fiesta will be appreciated. You can concoct them at home for your Cascarone guests.

Lee Chong's Clam Chowder
Half lb. bacon; 1, each, large onion and green pepper; 2 cups diced potatoes; 2 cups chopped clams with juices; 2 cups half milk and cream; thyme or caraway, salt and pepper to taste; chopped parsley as garnish. Serves 6-8.

Dice bacon and saute until crisp. Remove and drain on absorbent paper. In remaining fat, saute chopped onion and green pepper until just limp. Add cooked diced peeled white potatoes with chopped clams, juices and half cream, half milk. Drain off fat. Quite near serving time, add seasonings, bacon. Serve very hot but not scorched. Top each cup with parsley, finely chopped.

Paisano Salad

Two cups canned garbanzos, drained; 3 T. minced green onion; 3 T. each, minced green pepper and radishes; 3 T. red wine vinegar; 6 T. olive oil; salt, pepper and paprika; ground cumin and minced green chilis (optional); mixed fresh greens. Serves 8.

Mix everything together (excepting greens, which are added at serving). Chill, drain and surround with crisp leaves of romaine or other mixed California greens.

Mac's Favorite Steak with Mushrooms: Can you think of anything that can top marvelously succulent individual (and most generous) tender, but not tenderized, He-Man steaks? We saw them being "charbroiled" right outside the Mark Thomas Inn, served piping and to order . . . how unforgettable! This brought off a rising ovation, although none of us could return fast enough to our very own STEAKS!

Frijoles are so easy to come by on our Peninsula, let each cocinero make up his own specialty. Our main interest is the combination of Artichokes and Tomatoes which we savored with delight at the Mark Thomas Inn.

Artichokes and Tomatoes
Two pkgs. frozen artichoke hearts; 2 large cans stewed tomatoes; olive oil; oregano, rosemary and crushed garlic to taste, plus salt, pepper and lemon juice. Serves 8-10.

Cook frozen artichokes according to directions. Drain and cut into medium slices. In casserole, add them with oil and tomatoes. Season to taste and cook at low heat until ready to serve. A marvelous "now-and-then" taste.

Serve unsurpassed Monterey Jack cheese with some wedges of apples and pears . . . then wait for manana when "Doc" gives forth with his Polynesian Brunch at the Outrigger on Cannery Row. We'll go into this soon.

From A Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

Ika Chase has her followers, and because this librarian is not one of them, the first book today is all for you. It is Second Spring and Two Potatoes. She is still travelling, this time in the South Seas. Once again her book is illustrated with several small photographs which she probably took herself. The whole thing is rather trivial.

After our own deep freeze, the new book Indoor Gardens might prove interesting. The author's name is Ware Budlong, and she's a girl. Ware almost seems like a man's name. Almost. There are beautiful color plates showing what can be done with indoor gardens, and directions as to species and arrangements. An interesting book.

On the lighter side, we have The Intelligent Dog's Guide to People-Owning by Greyfriar's Flannel Petticoat, and she, too, is a girl. Her father was Tarawood's Flannel Pants, and their family history goes back for generations and generations. This is a dog-written book without the schmalz.

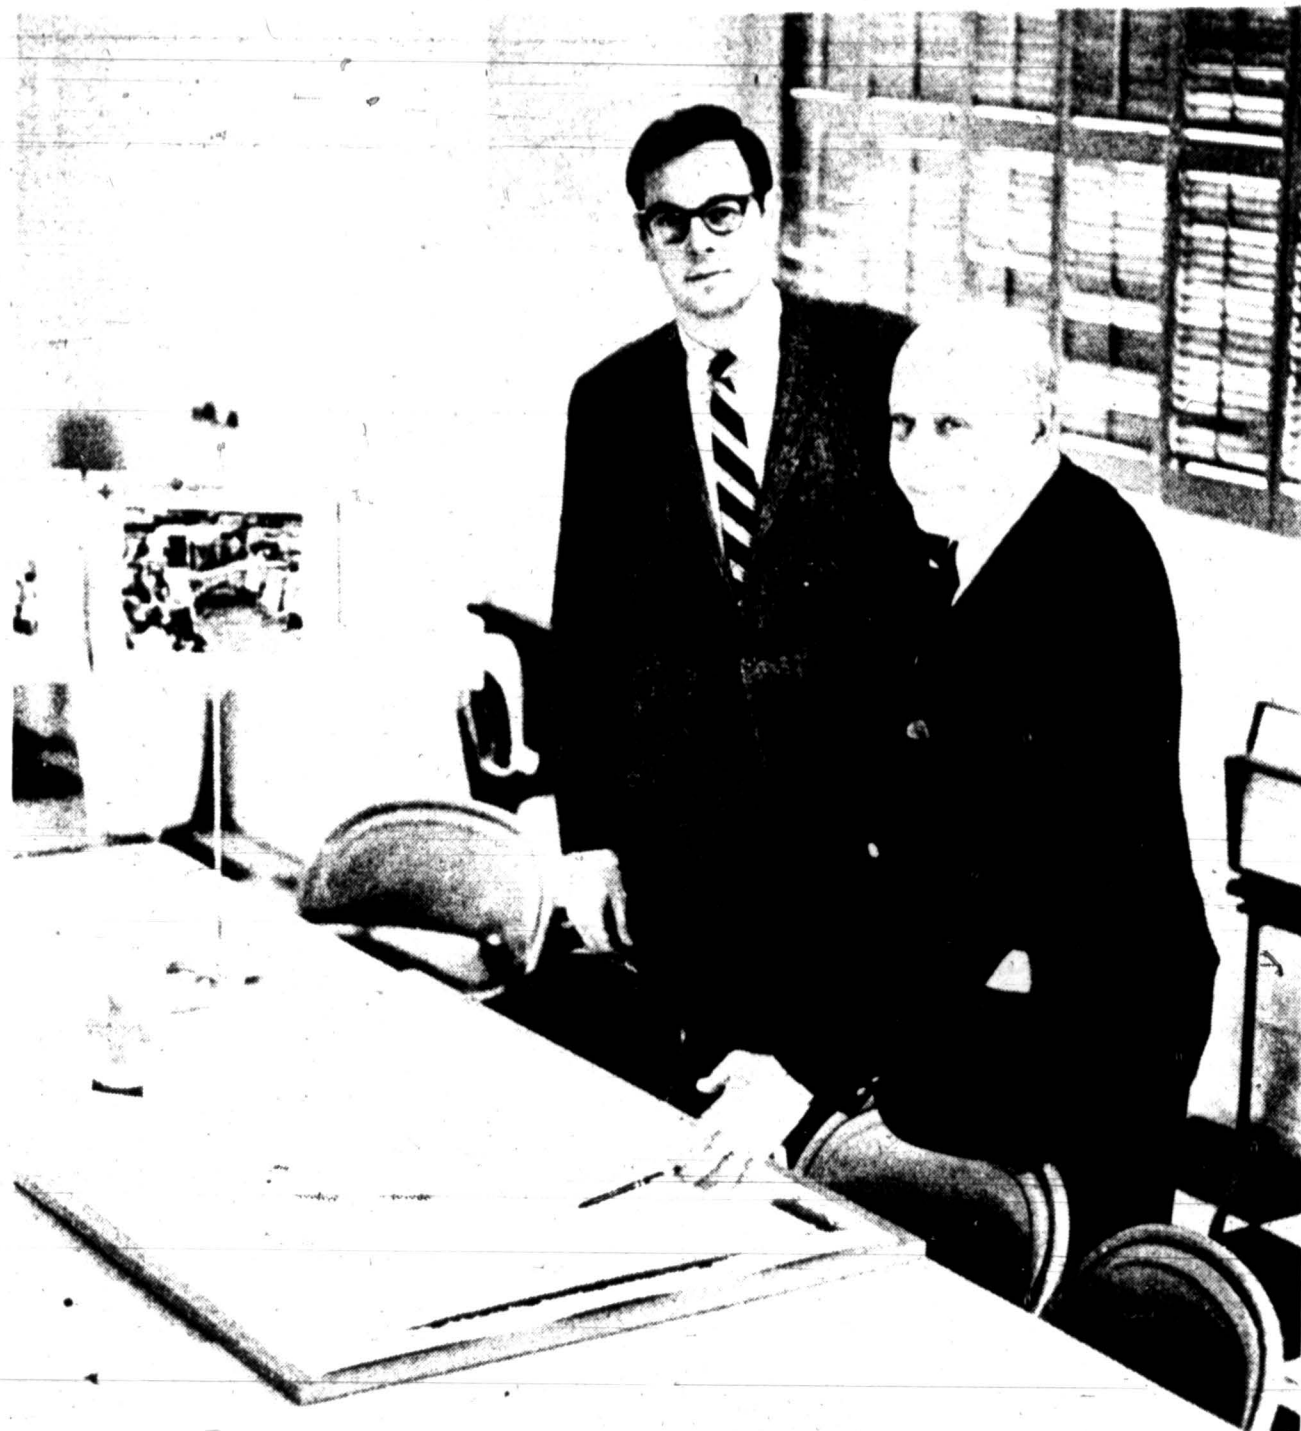

Not everything is pig and poi in Hawaii. We have here a book of Hawaiian recipes which is called Pineapples, Passion Fruit, and Poi. The author is Mary Lou Gebhard. This is a small book containing real island recipes and some which have been somewhat altered for Stateside cooks. They read delightfully, and did you know poi is now available in frozen state? But where? The book is divided according to the native country of the cooks, that is, Korea, Tahiti, the Philippines, China, and Japan. This proves that in eating as in everything else, Hawaii is a meeting of races and nationalities.

Calling attention to the next book is honestly distasteful because of its bad editing, many misspelled words and blatant commercial appearance. The fact remains that it is on the subject of flying saucers and there is much interest in the subject in this area. Beside that, it is a paperback which won't last long. The author is Frank Stranges and the title is The Stranger at the Pentagon. A section of the book is alleged to have been written by a person from the planet Venus who states that he lived for three years in Washington, D.C., as a guest of our government. There are interesting photographs, and many dull ones, the latter consisting of pictures of the author beaming at the camera from many different angles. Without doubt there is much here that could be true, there is also so much that could be faked, and only a man from Venus could tell where one ends and the other begins.

A collection of articles and speeches by Robert Kennedy, and published under the title To Seek a Newer World, is also included with the new books this week. A good thing to know all we can about this man who may be a national candidate.

Most women dream of the house they would build if only they had the time, or the money, or were settled in one place long enough. Dorothy Rodgers, wife of Richard Rodgers, had that dream and made it come true. The resulting book is called The House in My Head. Read the book and this house will be in your head for the rest of your life.

Francis P. "Skip" Lloyd, chairman, Red Cross campaign for members and funds, announces the 1968 goal of $32,981 for the Carmel chapter. Shown with him is Hal Reliford, Carmel realtor, chairman for the Carmel business district, mapping out areas for solicitors. The drive starts March 1.

New Guinea Film at Sunset

The Explorers Club has announced the personal appearance of the eminent Explorer Lewis Cotlow at 8:15 P.M., Saturday, February 24th at Carmel Sunset Center Theatre. Mr. Cotlow will personally narrate his prize-winning feature-length color film "Stone Age New Guinea."

Lewis Cotlow has travelled in 109 Countries and has made twelve major Expeditions. His primary objective has been to study and film the most primitive and dramatic people of remote areas of our Globe before the inevitable inroads of civilization change their culture and ways of life. The Cotlow Expedition came upon regions in the jungles of New Guinea where Natives still live in the Stone Age.

REPORTS FROM RLS

By Chandler Meloy

Basketball Ends . . . Speakers To Stanford

The basketball season ends this weekend when Stevenson varsity competes in the CAA (League) Tournament tonight (Thursday), tomorrow and Saturday. Stevenson opens against top-rated Mora. If they win this one they can go all the way for their first title in history.

After defeating Monte Vista Tuesday, the "Pirates" are still talking about the one-point loss to Junipero last Friday. Fighting even at the buzzer, when George Winters sank a basket, the team lost its most heartbreaking game of the year, as they led all the way until the last few moments. Fast-breaking Mike Greene was leading scorer for RLS with 24 points, as Eric Paulsen added 18. Final score was 78 to 79 (sob). The Frosh-Soph, or Kinions Kats, won 42-26 with Jim Doyle taking scoring honors at 15, and cinching second place in league standings.

Speakers On Move Again

After their impressive showing at Claremont two weeks ago, the debate and forensic teams take the road again to attend the Stanford Invitational this weekend. Some 600 participants from California and the Western United States will attend. Selected to represent the school are Robert Howard, Lonnie Foy, William Kondrat, Peter Cowden, Geoff Haynes and Jack Booth. In addition to these boys, who will also double in individual events, the team will include Joel Harris, Steve Dart, Bruce Decker, Bill Hand, Jim Booth and Claude Wynn. On Saturday, three teams also will attend the PFL tournament (debate) at Soquel . . . Gary Novak and John Sharon, Steve Simmons and Ed Scott, and Rick Johnson and Arlen Chase.

National Merit Scholars

Last week, Headmaster Ricklefs presented Finalist Certificates to Robert Howard, William Kondrat and Steven Russell for the National Merit Scholarship Program. These three boys, all active in school life, have Faculty Honors (Howard has a perfect 100.0) and are a fine indication of the quality of our students.

In the third annual area seminar of the California Association of Independent Schools, Robert U. Ricklefs headed a large delegation from the Stevenson School this past weekend at Asilomar. Devoted to foreign language teaching, and including speeches, discussions and seminars, the program was

WHAT'S DOING?

Did you know that the average family in the United States moves once every five years?

When your moving day comes you can make sure — with just one call — that your phone service is the last thing out of your old home and the first thing into your new home. It doesn't matter whether you're moving to a nearby town or across the country — you can take advantage of this service anywhere in the nationwide Bell System.

We call it the Easy Move Plan and this service comes to you at no extra charge. To arrange for your new phone just call your local Business Office and ask your Service Representative about the Easy Move Plan. We're here to help.

Here's an inexpensive and practical item you'll want to know about. It's a separate, personal listing in the telephone directory for various members of your household. These listings are particularly helpful if anyone in your home has a last name that's different from yours. Each additional name listed in the directory is only 35¢ a month. For information, call your local Business Office.

If you have had the occasion recently to drive along David Avenue in Monterey you probably have had to detour around the excavating crews and their equipment.

These crews are digging up the street to lay the conduit for additional telephone cable. We will soon be pulling large cables through this conduit to supplement our existing facilities in the upper Pacific Grove, Del Monte Park, and Monterey Peninsula Country Club areas. This job was brought about by the continuing growth of the Monterey Peninsula.

May we thank all of you for your patience and ask your indulgence until the job is completed.

because Congress doesn't do anything, citing open housing and reapportionment of legislature as examples. Congress, he said, is unrepresentative, dominated by Southern seniority.

"It would be very good to have a constitutional convention and reconsider things in the light of the present day."

"No problem that greatly concerns the citizen today is mentioned in the Constitution." Congressional structure is totally incapable of coping with any real pressing problem.

"Students are the great hope. The trouble with students is that they graduate. The bored and frustrated student is likely to produce important consequences."

"Education has nothing to do with earning a living," said Hutchins. "Being a complete human being and trying to make a human community, these are full time jobs."

LEVEL LOT—ONE BLOCK TO BEACH
An excellent value in a close-in lot, only 1 block to beach, and a block south of Ocean Ave. A real good buy at $25,000.

7.7 LEVEL ACRES AT $6,950 PER ACRE
CARMEL VALLEY. This most desirable parcel has Highway frontage. River frontage, is only 4½ miles from Highway 1, ½ mile to a golf course, is between 2 shopping centers and near an elementary school. Offered at the lowest per-acre price we know of. What more can you ask, other than the exact location and terms—both of which are terrific. Exclusive.

A DIVIDABLE 2-ACRE LOT—$17,500
Sounds impossible at this low figure—it almost is, but we actually have a 2.18-acre lot in Rancho Rio Vista that we believe can easily be subdivided into TWO LEGAL BUILDING SITES. Call for details.

LARGE 4-BEDROOM HOUSE 3 BLOCKS TO P.O.
AND A VERY VERSATILE HOUSE IT IS, TOO! Excellent for a family, 2 families, or income. 2 bedrooms, 1½ baths up; 2 bedrooms, 1 bath down. Large living rooms with fireplaces up AND down. Dining room and big kitchen up. Double garage. Very near to beach. Many other features. Full price is $59,500 and it probably couldn't be replaced today at $15,000 more.

7 BEDROOMS IN HATTON FIELDS
This very large (6000 square feet) almost-new, custom-built architect-designed home is ideal for a large family, too. You cannot imagine the quality of workmanship—if it weren't for the modern baths and kitchen you'd say the house had too much charm and quality to be almost new. There are 5½ baths, formal dining room, library, wet bar, recreation room, and many, many other features. Priced below replacement cost at $148,500.

CARMEL—3 BEDROOMS, 3 BATHS—$43,500
An almost new home on a corner, 4 blocks from Post Office, 4 blocks from beach, some ocean view. One bedroom and bath with separate entrance. A real good buy at $43,500.

MPCC LOT—ONLY $12,000
Excellent value here for this gently sloping lot fairly near the club house. There might even be some ocean view. Dimensions average 87'x127'. Lot is adjacent to and north of 3113 Hermitage Road.

AS GEORGE WASHINGTON COMMENTED ON REAL ESTATE

back in 1778
(in a letter to his stepson on land values)

"Lands are of permanent value; there is scarcely a possibility of their falling in price but almost a moral certainty of their rising exceedingly in value." "Real estate is an asset that ever increases in value; it is a basis of all security and about the only indestructible security."

One hundred ninety years later, still excellent advice. May we show you the superb building sites now available in Carmel, Carmel Valley and Pebble Beach.

EXCELLENT VALUES

With existing facilities for 43 horses and sufficient improvements to provide a club house, caretaker's home, a bunk house and three existing corrals, this twenty-plus-acre horse ranch in Tulareitos just East of Carmel Valley Village is practically ready for occupancy. May even be able to provide a few partners if you want to form an Association. The price is not unreasonable considering the improvements, location, and the fact that a portion is zoned for multiple-family units with resort hotel and professional uses by use permit.

This recently remodeled old Spanish home consists of three or four bedrooms, a dining room, modern kitchen with built-ins (brand new), two baths, a basement that can be further developed, and view decks. Ideal location for the high-school-student family. An excellent value at $50,000.

FRUSTRATION IS:

1. TRYING TO DESCRIBE THE LOCATION of this house, and having an enormous storm-pushed wave slam against the granite boulders at your feet to underscore the fascination of the view in one great dramatic moment of misty melody;
2. OR IT'S TRYING TO WRITE OUT THE PLEASURE of living in an adobe on a mountain top above Carmel Valley, and watching a hawk, in the space of less than a minute, wheel over the whole panorama, encompassing all the wild, remote beauty of the spot in a single effortless sweep.
3. AND IT'S WANTING TO TELL OUT-OF-TOWNERS why they would enjoy weekends in a little storybook Carmel cottage near the beach and the village, and having a blue jay and a grey squirrel, in one fascinating argument over the ownership of a peanut, challenge the interest of any TV program or indoor city-type amusements—and hearing, in the silence that follows the argument, no traffic noises.

4. OR IT'S SITTING BEFORE A MAGNIFICENT STONE FIREPLACE, looking at redwoods in the last of the light as they are framed by the floor-to-ceiling A-frame windows, and suddenly sniffing the aroma from the cooking pot on the crane over the fire, and hearing Mozart on the incredibly fine stereo—and knowing you cannot pass on in words the contentment of a moment with all the senses so simultaneously pleased.

5. AND... FRUSTRATION IS ALSO standing on the front porch, watching the lights come on over Monterey Bay, trying to decide how to convey the miracle of still being able to own five whole acres of wilderness midway between Carmel and Monterey, with this kind of a view, and suddenly discovering that you have been joined by a deer and her fawn whose presence says it all.

IN SHORT, FRUSTRATION IS TRYING TO ADVERTISE THE DELIGHTS OF THIS WONDERFUL AREA WHERE WE LIVE. So we give up. Suffice it here to say that (1) is an artist's home and studio 4 miles south of Carmel on the ocean for $99,500; (2) is about 3 miles above Carmel Valley Village priced at $110,000 with 5 acres with up to 370 additional acres available. (3) is on quiet, charming Palou and can provide rental income for under $32,000. (4) is in the upper Palo Colorado Canyon on 6 acres, including an orchard and this mountain home for $59,000. And (5) is in Jack's Peak and is a lovely home for $65,000. Couldn't you just ask for an appointment and let us SHOW you the ones that appeal to you?

I SOLISTI VENETI . . . chamber ensemble to perform in Pacific Grove.

I Solisti Veneti Chamber Group To Perform In P.G.

Founded nine years ago in Padua, I Solisti Veneti, a 12-musician chamber ensemble, will appear at the Pacific Grove Junior High School Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday, February 28, as the fourth concert in the series presented by the Monterey Peninsula Concert Association.

Extensive tours of this ensemble have taken them through all the countries of Europe, including Iceland, the Middle East, the Far East and the United States. They have appeared with the major European festivals, including Salzburg, Barcelona, Liege and Florence, and were invited to participate in the 80th birthday celebration of the King of Sweden.

The Los Angeles Times state "Tonal velvet, like-mindedness of intention and virtual perfection of ensemble." And the Washington Post: "They left their audience clamoring for more."

will be used primarily for his trucks.

A wrecking yard of this nature is in compliance with the present ordinance which states that it is lawful to hold wrecked cars for a time, but not permanently.

This yard also is available to the Highway Patrol who bring abandoned cars to be kept here.

The Commission then discussed the phone booth at the Golden Bough Theatre and voted unanimously to have this phone booth removed.

They also received a letter from an "interested party" suggesting that an ice skate arena be erected at Sunset Center. After a good laugh, the Commission considered it no further.

Planning Director John Riling has been using the old police station building as his office, but now that the property has been sold and with construction scheduled by the new owner to begin next week, the Commission proposes to move his office into Sunset Center.

Exchange Student Visiting in Carmel

California. While in Carmel, Miss Bjorkman will be the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Coss of Pebble Beach. She will be attending classes at Carmel High School all next week.

The purpose of Exchange Week is to broaden the experience of all Americans. Abroad foreign students by making it possible for them to live, for a week, in a community which differs considerably from that of their American family. This experience exposes them, in a small way, to the variety of American life.

Program Society Choral

The Monterey Peninsula Choral Society will present a program of religious music Sunday at 8 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Monterey, Eldorado and Alta Mesa, under the direction of Jan deJong, conductor of the Monterey County Symphony, with Kenneth Ahrens at the organ.

The program will include selections from the November Renaissance Festival which received acclaim in all reviews. Many of those who were unable to attend the festival will welcome the opportunity to hear music which, according to one reviewer "has a fragile, haunting quality which is a restful change from the noisier pace of the 20th Century."

The Monteverdi "Magnificat," which will be presented, was described as the highlight of the festival.

A voluntary offering will be accepted for the benefit of the Choral Society.

Symphonic and Opera Tour Of Europe

Carmel music-lovers will be interested to know about the Symphonic and Opera Tour of Europe which will include performances in Covent Garden, La Scala and Salzburg. The tour will leave San Francisco April 23 and will take in an evening at the Metropolitan Opera the following night in New York City before leaving for Paris on April 25.

From that point on, concert, opera and ballet highlights are scheduled in Paris, London, Copenhagen, Berlin, Munich, Salzburg, Vienna, Milan Rome and Athens. The Unitde Travel Service, San Francisco is sponsor.

Frank Wallace and his Nepalese bride, the former Bina Pandey, are shown taking part in the Hindu ceremony, the morning of February 7. The "swambar" ceremony took place in the canopied courtyard of the bride's home in the center of which was a large rug on which the bride and groom sat on large cushions. During the ceremony they exchanged leis of spring flowers and pine needles, "tias," red spots on the forehead, fed each other cake and Frank placed a diamond family ring on her finger. Bina wore the traditional gold and red sari with sequins for this ceremony. Her matron of honor wore a turquoise sari.

In the afternoon an American wedding was held at the exotic Hotel Royal in Kathmandu, at which Bina wore a graceful pink and gold sari and carried a cascade bouquet of sweet peas and snaps which Frank's mother, Mrs. (Fran) DeForest Sweeney had made.

Her wedding veil, which his sister Judy had worn, was made of lace from the wedding dress Fran had worn, and which had been her mother's. They stood before a background of magnolia blossoms and flowering fruit trees, 10 or 12 feet high.

A Peace Corps officer, a Mennonite minister, performed the rite for which Frank's best man was Jerry Sternin of Martinez, California. It was attended by 82 Peace Corps members, Nepalese family friends and American government people.

After the wedding, the bride came to Fran to serve her the wedding food first. Then the rest of the guests helped themselves. The couple left in a Peace Corps jeep decorated with shaving cream signs and tin cans. Rice was thrown.

Bina is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Krishna Bahadur Pandey. Her older brother and sister speak English fluently. After traveling in Europe they will return to Carmel and continue their Peace Corps training work at U.C. at Davis.

'Harvey'

With an all star cast at his disposal, Circle Theatre Director Norman McPhee couldn't help but have a hit on his hands with "Harvey," even though it has been seen by most theatregoers at one time or another.

We have seen professionals and amateurs alike in the part of the "slightly looney" Elwood P. Dowd, the "man with the Pooka," but none have captured the role any more effectively as Mike Keller. His pleasant smile and soft earnest voice blended well into his character, who, by the end of the production, was envied by every member of the audience for his wonderful sense of humor and his determination to win the friendship of mankind. Mike certainly proved to the Circle audience that his ability was truly professional. Mike, who has been known on the Peninsula for a number of years as a director and actor, recently returned from Hollywood where he played a character role opposite Elvis Presley. Mike's role in "Harvey" was nothing less than great.

Ruth McElroy, known across the country for her professional appearances, was cast as Veta Louise, Elwood's sister.

The only item which seemed to bother some of the audience was the lack of compatible costuming. Dr. Chumley was dressed in an obviously modern suit while Myrtle was attired in a dress of the 20's. Other than this one minor oversight, "Harvey" was accepted with rounds of applause and was performed with expertise.

MARKET COMMENTARY

Dow Theory Business and Stock Market Forecasts letter of February 16 mentions "... with the long term trend of prices pointing down, still lower prices are expected, under our interpretation of the Dow Theory. Maintain 50 per cent reserves and use utmost care in new buying." "... we still look forward to perhaps a major buying opportunity this spring, to be followed by a last-half rally."
